

Mortgage financing in Nutshell

When this process executes faster it creates following benefits.

- Increases lending institutions capitalization
- Allows lending institution to increase their market share due to higher financing
- Reduces default risk of lending institution

When this process has security, transparency and smart contracts.

- Decreases the risk for lending Institution and other participants.
- Increase the speed of this process.
- Increase end user satisfaction(customer and Investor).

